| Project Title | Know Your Customers, Grow Your Sales |
| The Problem You're Facing | Your business generates hundreds of thousands of individual transactions across diverse product lines and regional markets, but the sheer volume of purchasing records makes it difficult to see the bigger picture. Without clear metrics on repeat purchases, order sizes, and customer value, marketing decisions end up based on guesswork instead of evidence. |
| Our Idea, In One Line | We'll turn your raw purchasing history into a clean, trustworthy dataset and an interactive dashboard that reveals exactly who your most profitable buyers are, what products drive repeat sales, and where your best growth opportunities lie. |
| Why This Matters To You | Target the right buyers, focus sales outreach on high-value repeat accounts, eliminate wasted promotional spend, Identify your most in-demand products and their associated items، and make growth decisions backed by verified revenue trends rather than guesswork. |
| What You'll Walk Away With | • A fully standardized, ready-to-use dataset covering over half a million transaction records.• An interactive visual dashboard displaying clear metrics on top spending regions, purchase frequencies, and revenue drivers.• An interactive visual dashboard displaying on top Products purchase frequencies, and revenue drivers.• A practical executive summary highlighting key customer segments and direct recommendations to boost repeat orders immediately. |
| Who This Is For | Marketing and sales management teams who want to optimize customer acquisition, increase customer lifetime value, and make data-backed commercial decisions. |
